

Louis N. Lee, III (“Buddy”) has been on the Board of DASA since 2005 and has been President since May of 2009. Prior to becoming President, Buddy served on both the Scholarship and the Banquet Committees for DASA.

Buddy is a Member in the Dallas office of the Houston based law firm of Looper, Reed & McGraw, P.C. His primary area of practice is in the business group and includes such diverse areas as energy, real estate and tax planning.

Buddy earned his under graduate degree from the University of Colorado-Boulder, his law degree from the University of Missouri-Columbia and his masters in law, emphasizing taxation, from Southern Methodist University.

Buddy has two sons and has been married to Becky McGee Lee for more than 28 years. His family attends Highland Park United Methodist Church, the same church in which Becky and Buddy were married.